Health Authority for Producers Currently Licensed for Property\Casualty

Please complete the following – No fee required prior to December 31, 2003

Producers licensed for property\casualty authority prior to November 4, 2002 completed preclicensing education and testing for health as well. Any producer currently licensed for property\casualty will continue to have authority to write health insurance through December 31, 2003. During this transition period these producers may add health authority to their license by submitting this form. The usual $20 processing fee will be waived until that date. After December 31, 2003 no producer with property and\or casualty authority may sell health insurance unless he or she first adds the health authority, documents that he or she has completed preclicensing education and testing for health authority either by being licensed for property\casualty authority prior to November 4, 2002, or by satisfying the preclicensing education and examination requirements for health authority, and pays the $20 dollar fee.
